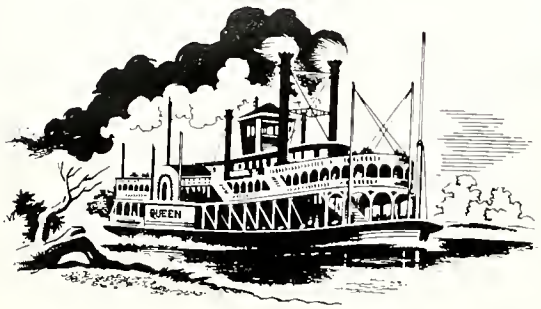
NEW ORLEANS

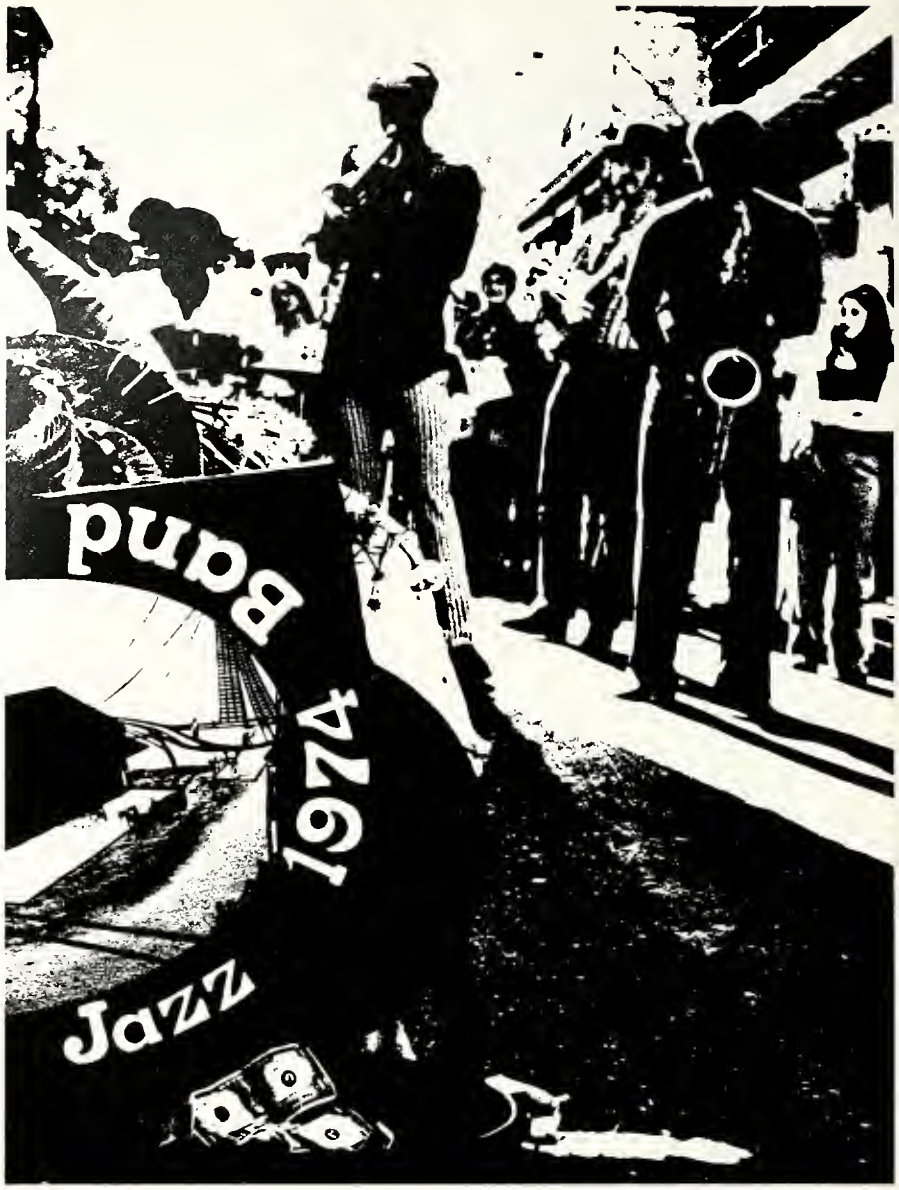
Every great city is famous for one thing or another. But this city has so many unique attractions, the French Quarter, Bourbon Street, Mardi Gras, the Superdome, Creole and French cuisines, and Jazz, the music everyone loves, just to name a few, that it has become one of the tourist capitals of the world. This unique atmosphere coupled with a dose of Southern hospitality gives rise to the saying: You'll love New Orleans and she'll love you right back.



The French Quarter by day and by night is pictured on these pages. At left, world-famous Bourbon Street, above, the changing moods of Jackson Square.

MUSIC

Music is the universal language. And Jazz appeals to everyone universally. New Orleans is the birthplace of Jazz. And it is here, where this music, seeped with tradition, is carried on as the underlying heartbeat of the city.



TUT

The priceless treasures of Tutankamun visited New Orleans this year. Over a million people crammed their way into the Museum of Art during its five month stay to see the amazingly intact artifacts of the boy King. The long delays in line were well worth the wait.

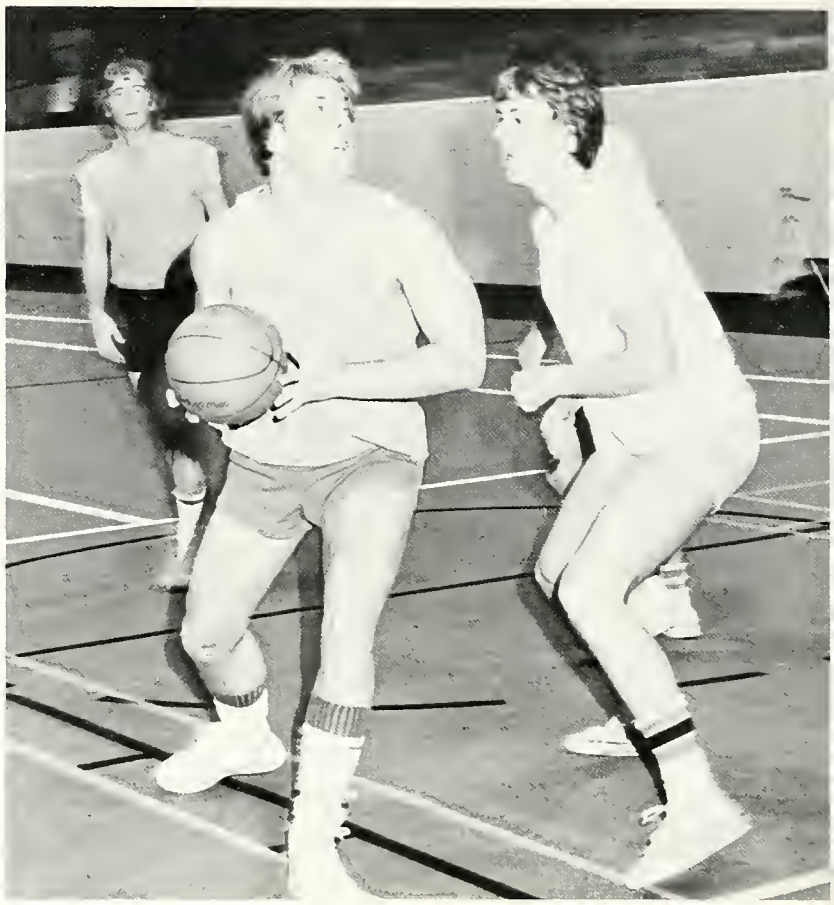
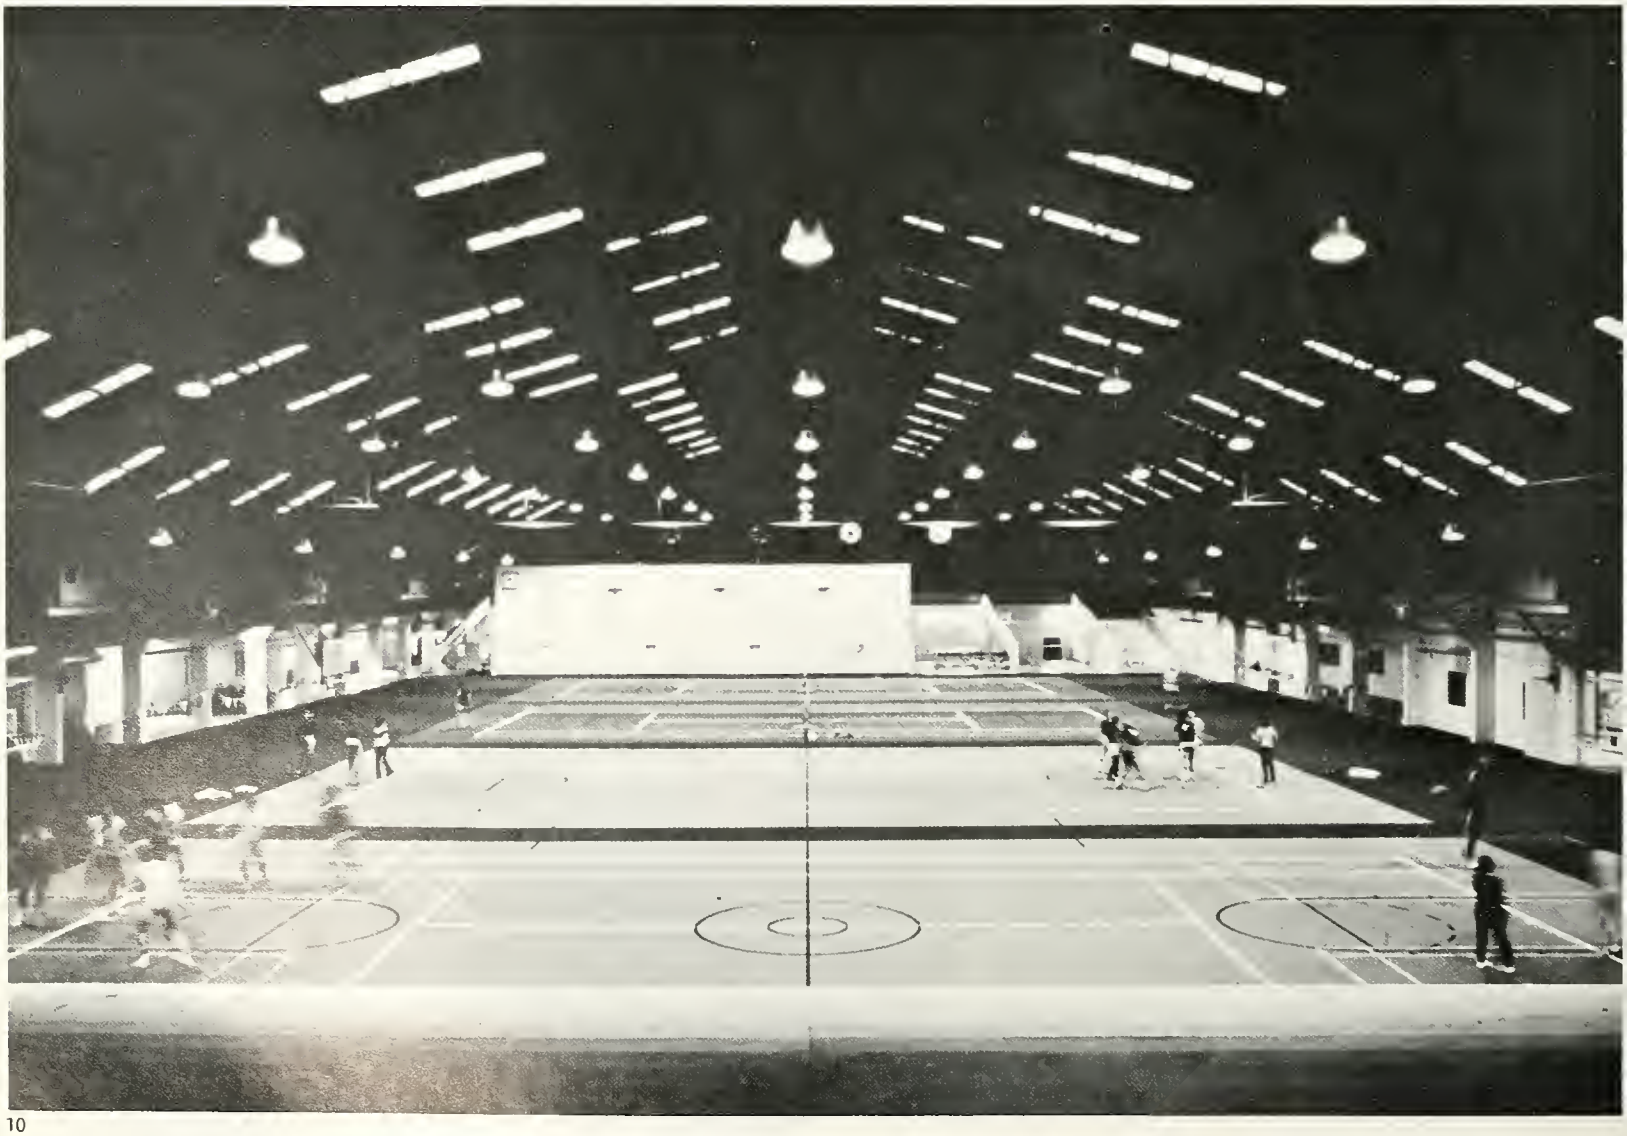
MARDI GRAS

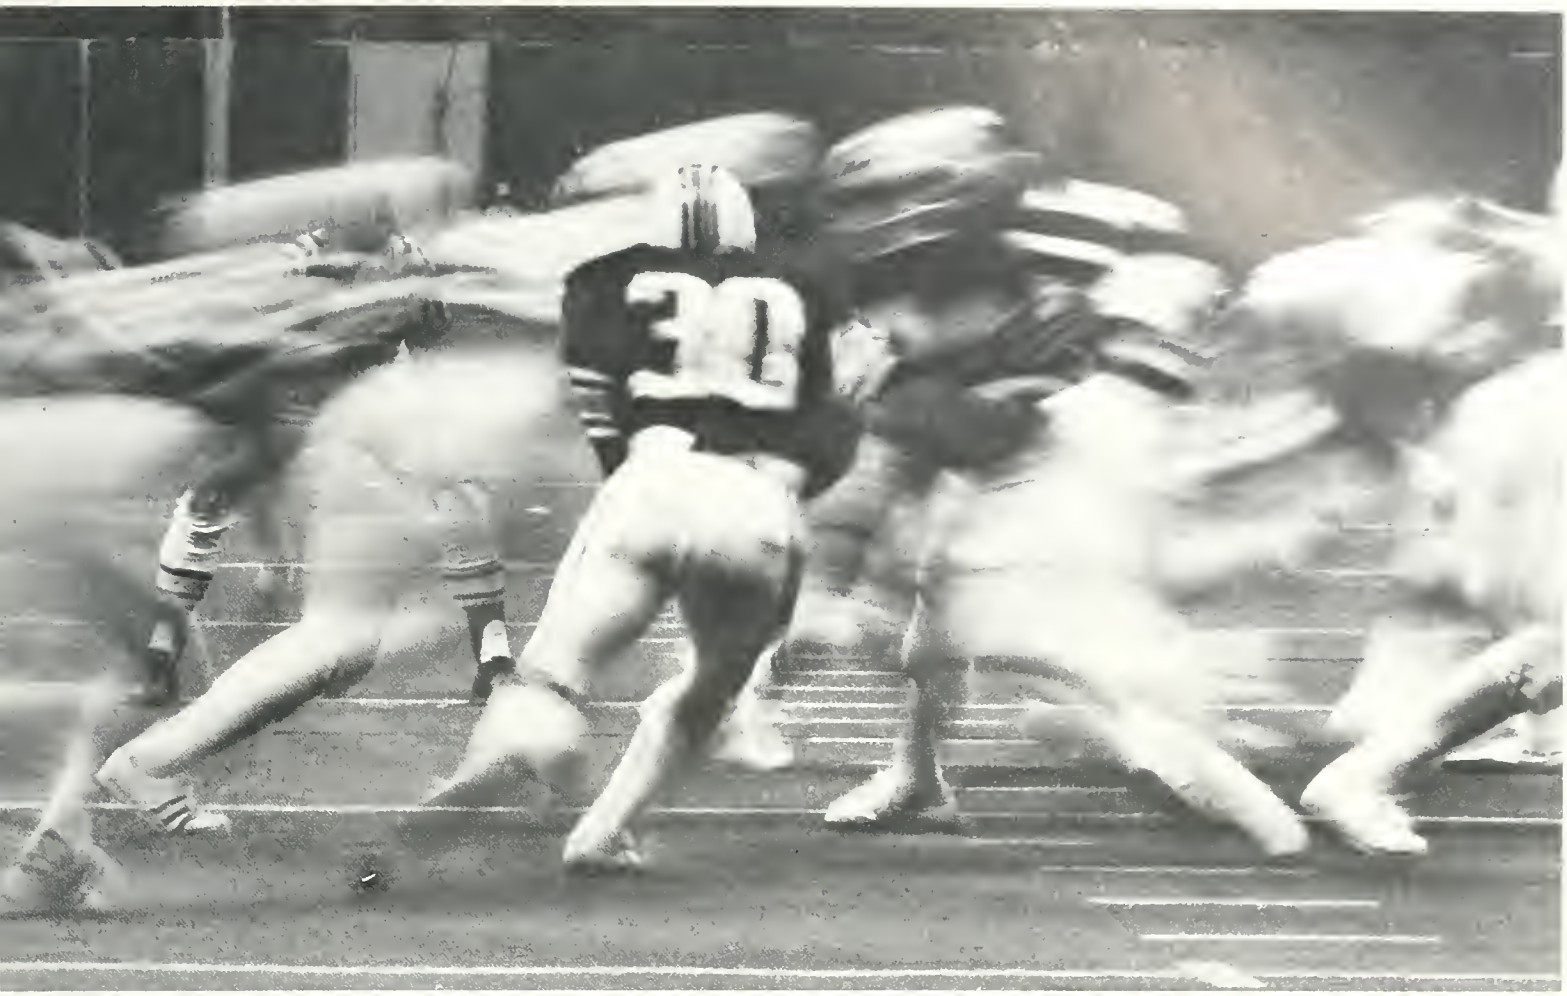
What can be said about Mardi Gras that hasn't already been said. Where else but in New Orleans can you walk the streets in the most ridiculous outfit, fight for beads and doubloons, eat and drink enough to make you sick, and still look no different from everyone else around you? On Fat Tuesday, New Orleans is truly the city that care forgot.

SPORTS

New Orleans is also the site of the Superdome, the world's largest indoor sporting arena. Each year the Sugar Bowl Classic is held here and this year was particularly interesting because it pitted Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide against Woody Hayes and his Buckeyes. It was Alabama 34, Ohio State 6. In addition, Super Bowl 12 was staged in the Superdome for the first time. The Orange Crush of Denver met the Cowboys of Dallas with Dallas emerging as the winner. And finally, this year marked the reopening of what was once the Loyola Field House. The new Recreation and Intramural Center now provides students with better athletic facilities than ever before.







LOYOLA

Near the end of St. Charles Ave. by the bend in the river lies Loyola University. It is a school as unique and diversified as the city it resides in. It is in this type of atmosphere that one comes to learn not only of accounting or biology, but of life in general. The following pages portray Loyola University during the school year, 1977- 1978. We feel it is a very well-rounded picture.

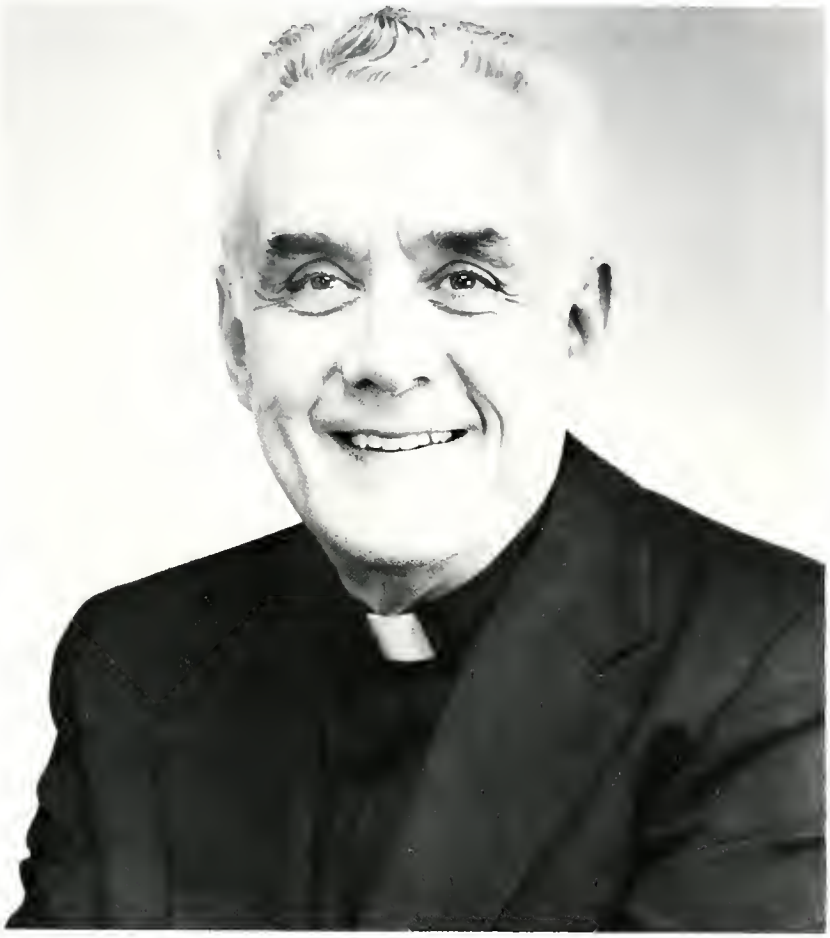
SPECIAL DEDICATION



REV. JOHN H. MULLAHY, S.J.

June 26, 1914 — May 16, 1978

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes;
and I will keep it to the end.
Give me understanding, that I may keep thy law and observe it with all my heart.
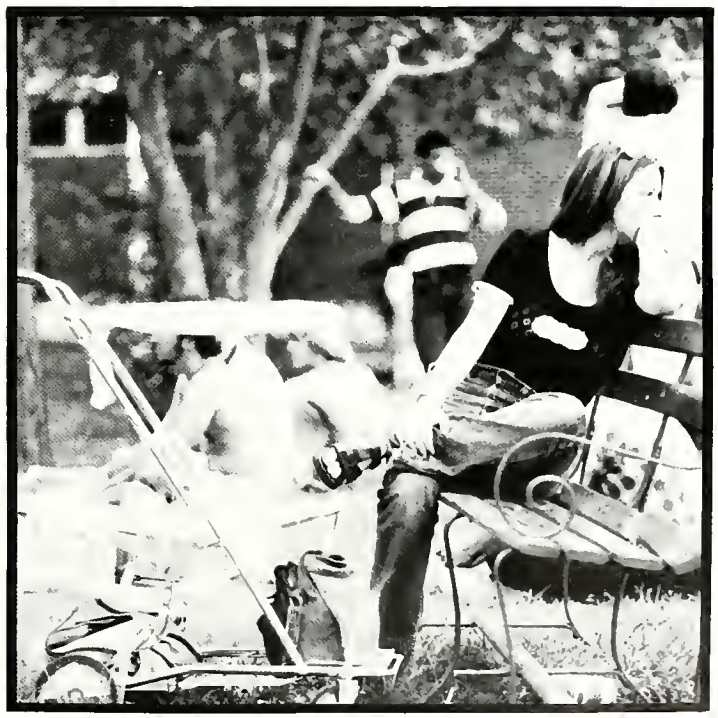
Lead me in the path of thy commandments,
for I delight in it.
Incline my heart to thy testimonies,
and give me life in thy ways.
Confirm to thy servant thy promise,
which is for those who fear thee.
Turn away the reproach which I dread;
for thy ordinances are good.
Behold, I long for thy precepts;
in thy righteousness give me life!

Psalm 119; 33-40

STUDENT LIFE

LOYOLA



UNIVERSITY . . .

LOTS OF HARD WORK. . .

DEC

You got to learn how to fall
Before you learn to fly
The tank towns they tell no lie
Before you learn to fly
Learn how to fall

You got to drift in the breeze
Before you set your sails
It's an occupation where the wind prevails
Before you set your sails
Drift in the breeze

Oh and it's the same old story
Ever since the world began
Everybody got the runs for glory
Nobody stop and scrutinize the plan
Nobody stop and scrutinize the plan

Paul Simon

AND LOTS OF FUN!

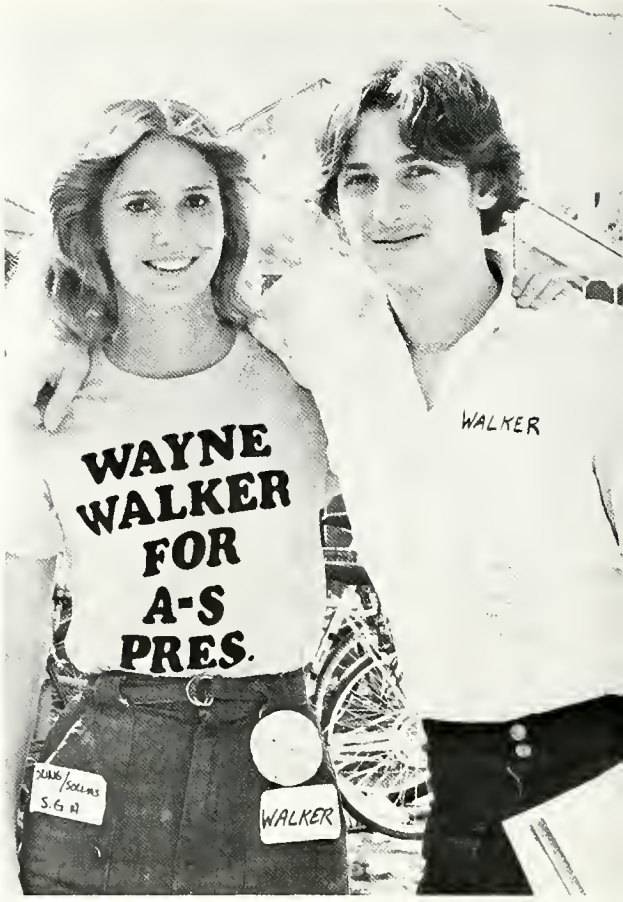
PUBLIC
PLAYGROUND

Now we take our time . . . so nonchalant,
And spend our days so bon vivant.
We dress our days in silken robes,
The money comes, the money goes . . .
We know it's all a passing phase.

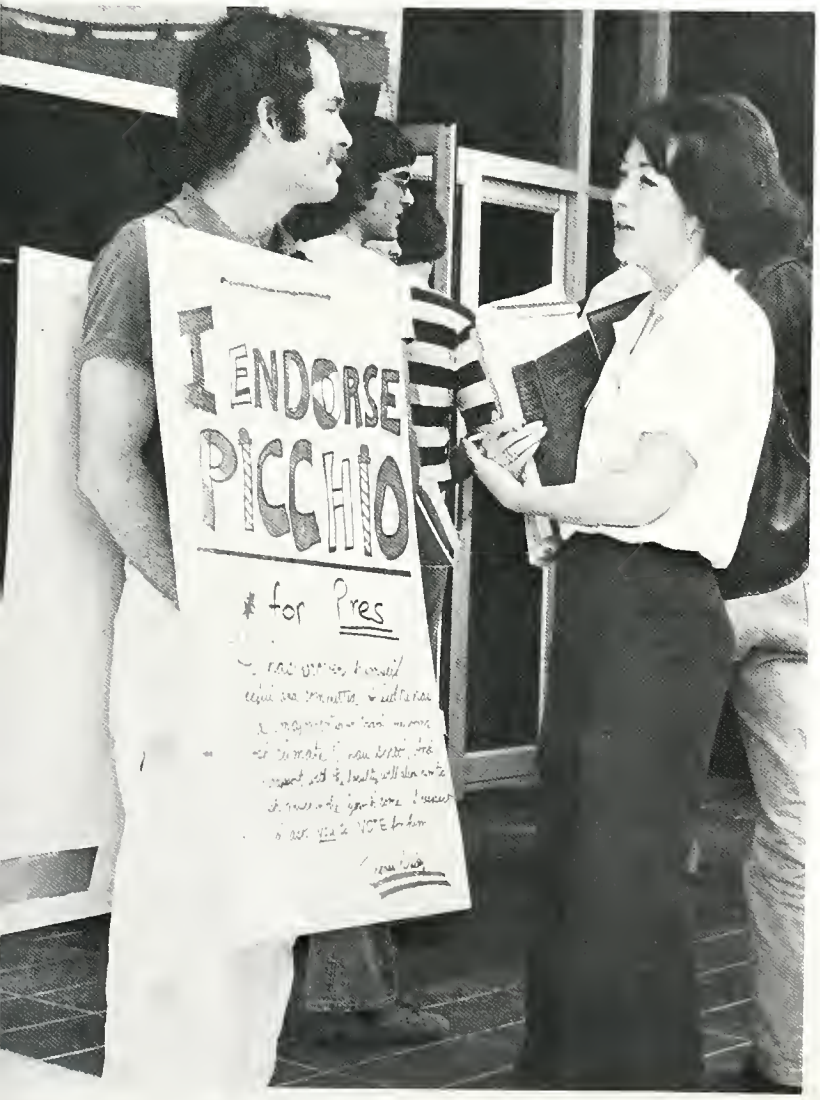
We light our lamps for atmosphere,
And hang our hopes on chandeliers.
We're going wrong, we're gaining weight,
We're sleeping long and far too late.
And so it's time to change our ways . . .

But I've loved these days.

Billy Joel



S G A



Every year late in the spring semester one can tell when school is about to end by the sudden appearance of political banners. This marks the beginning of a week's worth of campaigning for SGA hopefuls. This year Johnny Young was elected President with his running mate, Ed Sollas, capturing the Vice-Presidency.

ELECTIONS

APRIL EXPO

The April Expo was held for the first time this year. Sponsored by WLDC, the Maroon, and the Communications Department as a whole, interest was aroused by the free windsurfing classes, free beer, and free albums that were given away.

SHURE

MILITARY BALL

The military life is not strictly work. At year end the annual military ball is held to reward the cadets for a job well done. As usual, a good time was had by all.

MEDIEVAL FESTIVAL

Again this year a Medieval Festival was held in the Quad. Activities included such things as tightrope walkers, jugglers, clowns, fortune tellers and minstrels. Exhibitions were given in the art of fencing, and medieval warfare techniques. And after it was all over a lavish Medieval meal was prepared for the participants.

COMMENCEMENT

Way over yonder is a place that I know
Where I can find shelter from hunger and cold
And the sweet tasting good life is easily found
Way over yonder — that's where I'm bound

I know when I get there, the first thing I'll see
Is the sun shining golden — shining right down on me
Then trouble's gonna lose me — worry leave me behind
And I'll stand up proudly in true peace of mind

Way over yonder is a place I have seen
In a garden of wisdom from some long ago dream
Maybe tomorrow I'll find my way
To the land where the honey runs in the rivers each day
And the sweet tasting good life is so easily found

Way over yonder — that's where I'm bound
Way over yonder — that's where I'm bound.

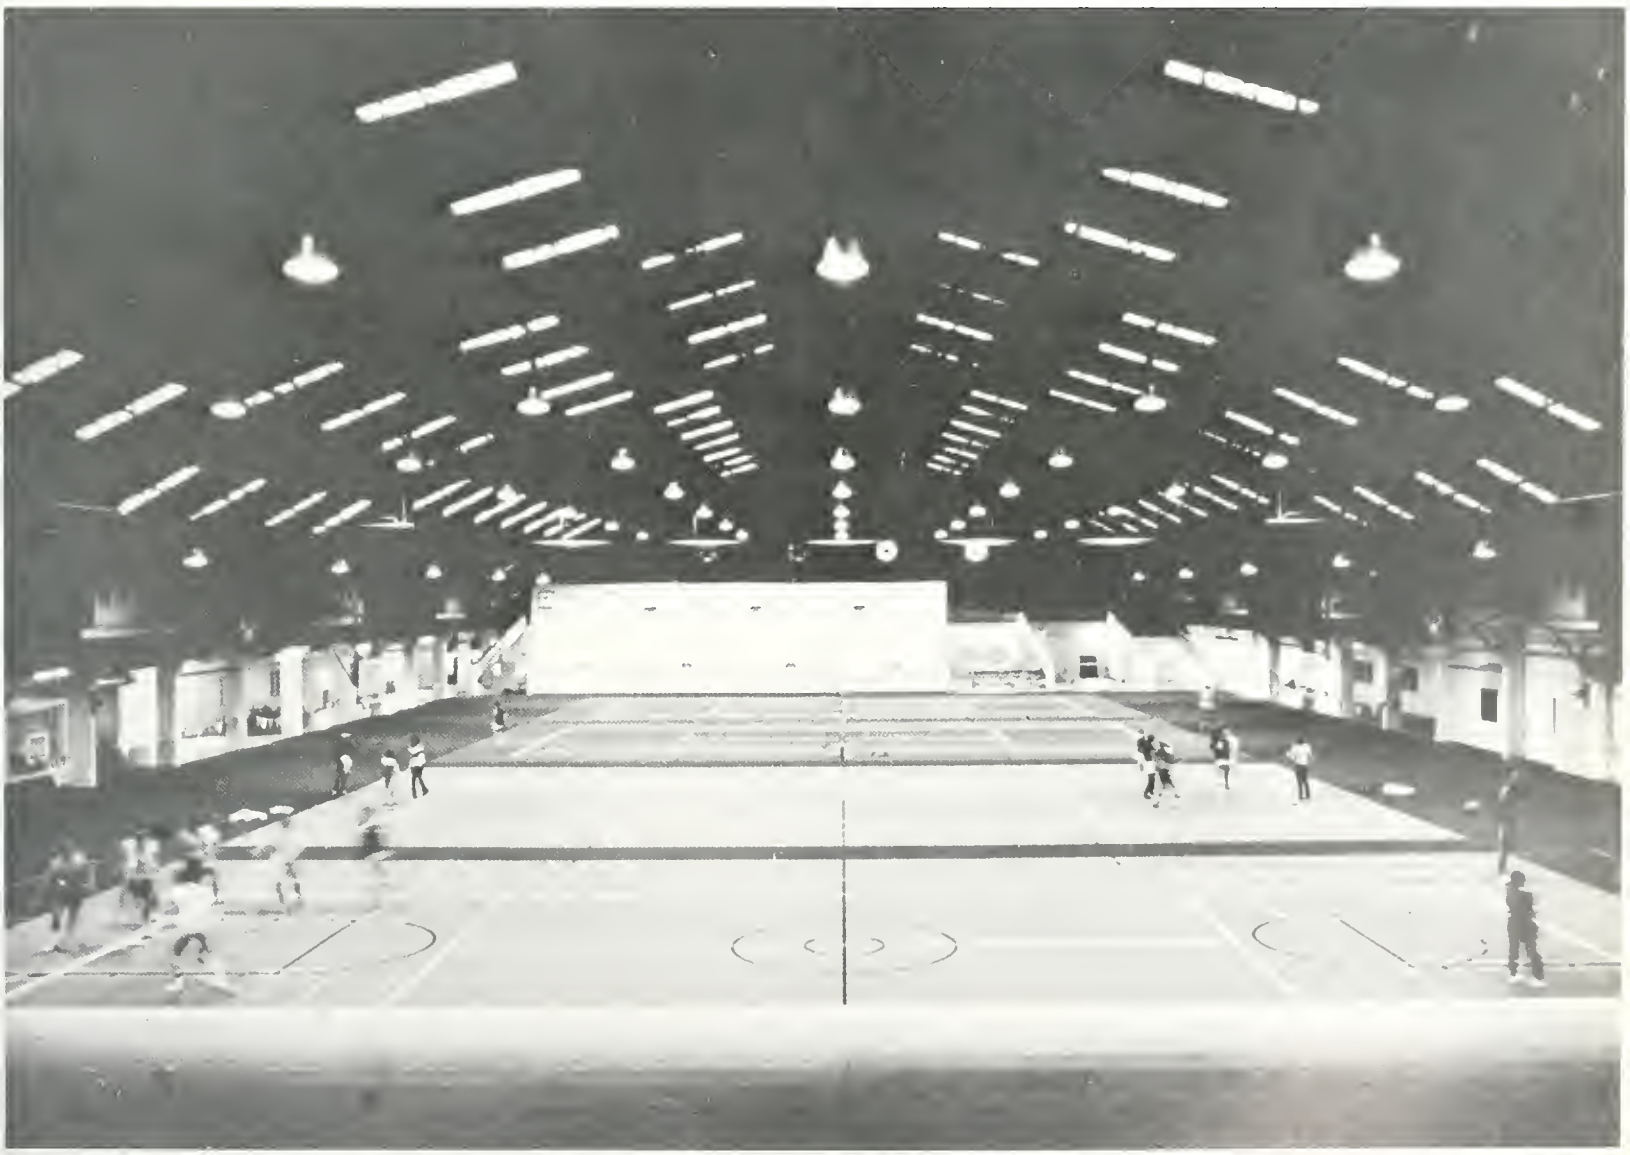
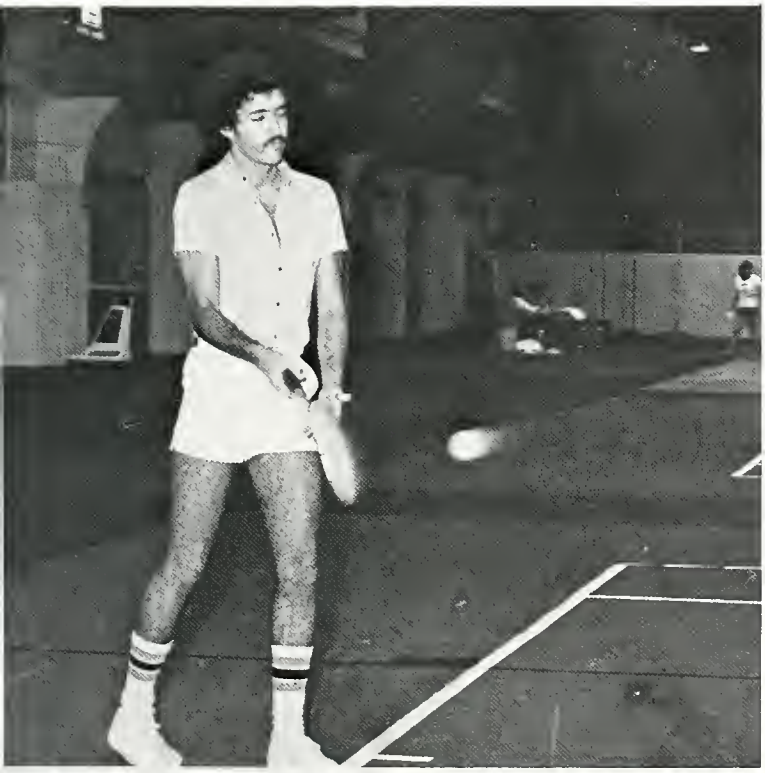
THE NEW LOYOLA RECREATION AND INTRAMURAL CENTER



A MULTI-PURPOSE RECREATION CENTER . . .

The Loyola Recreation and Intramural Center was officially opened during the Spring semester. Previously, the building had been known as the Loyola Field House, which was once home court for teams such as the Loyola Wolfpack and the New Orleans Jazz. As a result of the renovation, athletic facilities for tennis, basketball, weight lifting, racketball, handball, badminton and football are now availible. This multi-purpose center has something for everyone.



. . . WITH SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

At right, Stu Johnson supervises the taping of a sprained ankle. Below, Tri Phi and friends celebrate after the game.

On the bank of the Mississippi River behind Audubon Park, Loyola students competed in intramural football during the Fall semester. It didn't matter if you won or lost as long as you had fun.

POWDER PUFF GAME

As part of the opening ceremonies, the annual powder puff game was held in the Rec-Im center. With its powerful offense, the Hellcats emerged as the winners.

Alpha Delta Gamma is a fraternity, a group of men with similar ideals, hopes and purposes bonded together by deep friendship and a true sense of mutual understanding. Such a fraternal bond furnishes the incentive which turns the college freshman into a man equipped with a keener discerning mind, and a greater appreciation for life around him. Alpha Delta Gamma is not merely a fraternity for college days, it is a fraternity for life.

AMERICAN MARKETING ASSOCIATION

The Loyola Chapter of the American Marketing Association fosters better public understanding of marketing problems and sound thinking in marketing principles. It is a social as well as a professional organization, open to all business students. The various activities sponsored by the AMA offer members contact with professionals in the business environment, current information in marketing and business in general, and the opportunity to exchange ideas with other students in the business field.

Delta Theta Phi Law fraternity- a leading professional law fraternity since 1900, and the oldest such organization at Loyola Law School. Its purpose is to unite fraternally congenial students of the law, both male and female, for scholastic and social purposes, and to perpetuate the highest standards of personal integrity, individual responsibility, respect for law, and high professional and ethical conduct in the study, practice and teaching of the law. The fraternity sponsores many academic and social functions, many involving alumni of the Law School.

DELTA SIGMA PI

Delta Sigma Pi is the international professional fraternity for students of business administration. Membership in Delta Nu, the Chapter on Loyola's campus, is open to all students of business. The fraternity offers a well-rounded professional program, takes part in community service projects, and sponsors many social events as well. This offers a student the "best of both worlds" professional and social.

The Loyola University Community Action Program is a student-run organization designed to extend volunteer involvement beyond the campus area and into the community. There are eleven service oriented projects: Big Brothers, Big Sisters, Citizen Advocacy, Latin American Apostolate, Prison Project, School Volunteers, Bread for the World, Social Action Awareness, Social Action Campus, Social Action Community, and St. Jude's Infant Home. All offer the university community the opportunity to volunteer in many areas of interest.

MAROON

For students interested in becoming involved in the university community, working on the student newspaper provides easy access to teachers and information on campus decisions. All majors are welcome to work on the publication, which is most valuable in helping students learn how to organize and improve the ir writing skills. The communicatuins major can learn all practical information on editing and newspaper producting. Up to three hours of credit can be earned for writers, editors, advertisers, photographers, or graphic artists

PI MU EPSILON

Pi Mu Epsilon Louisiana Theta is an organization whose purpose is to promote higher academics in Mathematics. Certain academic excellence is required for membership. The general activities of the organization revolve around the Mathematical Sciences department. One of the biggest projects for Pi Mu Epsilon has been the promotion of Math throughout the city. This was accomplished by members of the organization visiting various high schools, hoping to foster some interest in Math and gain new majors. Other activities included: a field test to the NASA test facility, a trip to the Mathematical Association of America Convention held in Atlanta, Georgia, and a visit to the Mathematical Science department at Clemson University.

ROMANCE LANGUAGE CLUB

There are three Modern Foreign Language clubs in which membership is open to the entire Loyola Community regardless of GPA, or whether or not the member is a student of a foreign language. The purpose of these clubs is to acquaint the Loyola community with the cultures of their respective language communities and make available extra-cirricular activities for those students who are engaged in the study of a foreign language. The three clubs join to form a singers and dancers group called The MFL Troupe. Members of the troupe learn various songs and dances of the countries whose languages are taught in the International Culture and Civilization Week, as well as in the media and in Greater New Orleans schools, often before various clubs and conventions in the city. Each club has its own social events, as well as a combined main event in addition to the International Culture and Civilization Week.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Sigma Sigma Sigma National Sorority was founded on April 20, 1898. Since then the organization has grown and we now have 72 collegiate chapters. Tri Sigma is not only a social sorority but a service sorority as well. Our open motto is "Sigma Serves Children". Through various projects Tri-Sigma helps to fund play therapy rooms in various hospitals throughout the nation. Gamma Eta, Loyola's Chapter, has been active in all of these projects and has created some of its own to provide services to the New Orleans area.

STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

The Student Bar Association is the primary service organization of the law school. It provides social and professional activities. The S.B.A. funds the publication of the quarterly newspaper called THE CODE to inform students of the changes within the law school. For the benefit of the entire university, the S.B.A. sponsors national speakers. It also allocates funds to all of the law school clubs and organizations for their individual projects. The S.B.A. runs freshman orientation for the law school in order to facilitate the transition into law school for these beginning students.

SGA

The Student Government Association of Loyola University is a political organization, the purpose of which is to promote and protect student rights; and to determine, clarify, and enunciate student policies and opinions to the university community. While the legislative body is composed of elected representatives, there are various committies of which the general student body is not only welcomed, but in fact encouraged to join. Anyone interested in inquiring about any such committee may do so. All that is required is that you stop by the S.G.A. office and volunteer your services.

THE UNION

Want to get involved and have a say in what happens? Are you looking for fun, excitement, and a chance to meet people? The Loyola Union has it all! The Union is a student programming organization responsible for presenting a broad spectrum of activities to the campus community. It is comprised of eight standing committies: Cinematic Arts, Contemporary Sounds, Ideas and Issues, Performing Arts, Public Relations, Outdoor Activities, Variety Unlimited, and Visual Perspectives. Through the committies all programming activities are initiated and coordinated. Popular programs have included a Tubing Trip, Boat Dance, Gong Show, Wine and Cheese Extravaganza and Concerts. Successful creative programming is the goal; fun and learning is the key. The Loyola Union is open to anyone and everyone.

THE WOLF

In 1976 the yearbook was reinstated after an absence of nine years from the Loyola campus. By learning from our mistakes last year, we have attempted to put together a much better book this year. However, like any yearbook staff, we have encountered some problems. But nevertheless, here it is. In order to make the yearbook a more professional, polished, unique publication, we need your help. If you have some extra time, use it creatively; sign up now.

TO PATRICIA GORDON:
Congratulations and best wishes to our dear Pat who knows no barrier in her search for excellence and happiness.

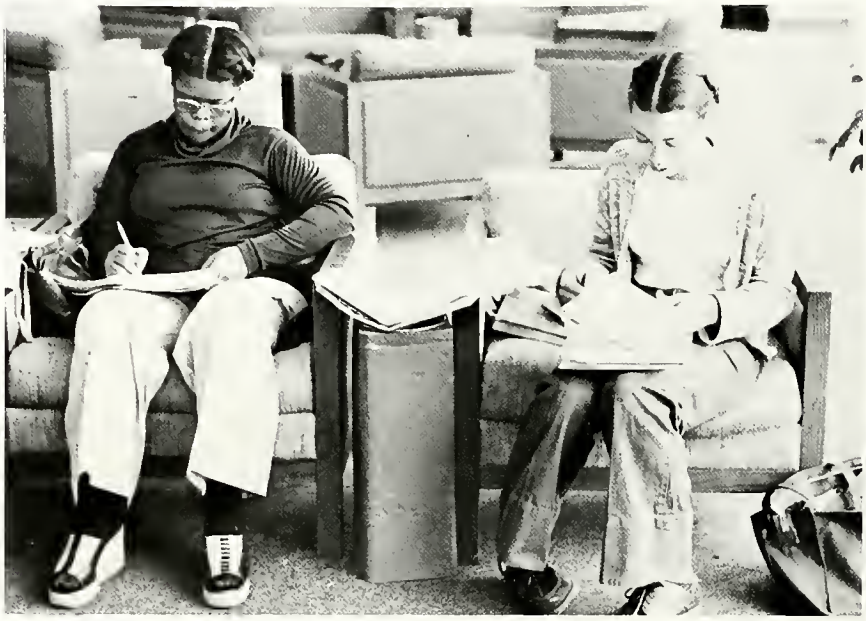
TO ANDRE GUICHARD:
Congratulations André
Best wishes for a most successful future S.K. and Arvenia Berheim.

TO STEVEN EBER:
Proud wishes to Steve Eber once the great boy of '66, now a great young man. With much love, Mom, Pop, and Sue.

TO AUTHUR ZAPOLSKI:
Here's to: A long life full of good health success and happiness. Happy flying Artie. Love, Mom and Dad.

TO AIMEE ST. CLAIR:
To Aimee, our special daughter: "The road goes ever on" and freshman year is gone. A year to be proud of! Love, Mama and Daddy.

TO CATHERINE TULLY:
Katy keep up the good work and you will make it. Love. Uncle Joe and Mother.



TO MICHEL TADIN:
Good luck and much happiness for the future. Love Mother and Father.

TO RALPH J. CERICOLA, JR.:
Congratulations on successfully completing your "first year of law school". We are happy for you and proud of you. May God bless you. All our love Mom, Dad, Cindy, et al.

TO BRIAN ZIEGLER:
Congratulations, Brian Ziegler, on a great year! The best of luck to you next year. Your Mom and Dad.

TO ZAIDA ELIAS:
Zaida: May the joy and happiness of this day and the blessing of the almighty and ours be with you forever. Your Parents.

TO KRISTEN M. HAGEDORN
Your own Personal worth can only be measured by self-determination.

TO MARK JANES:
Congratulations on being an honor student again! Hope a suitably "honorable" communications job is in your future. Mom.

TO RAYMOND VOULO:

TO JOHN MARTIN:
You are in the homestretch John —
Two down and only one more to go —!!
Bravo. Love Mother and Dad.

TO: SHARON-ROSE TURNER:
Nous t'aimons aujourd'hui, et nous sommes trés fiers de toi, mais nous t'aimions dés le jour que nous t'avons vu, et nous t'aimerons toujours.

Maman et Papa

TO JOAN HENNESSY:
Who Loves You Baby?
We do! Len, Mike, Paul, Mother and Dad.

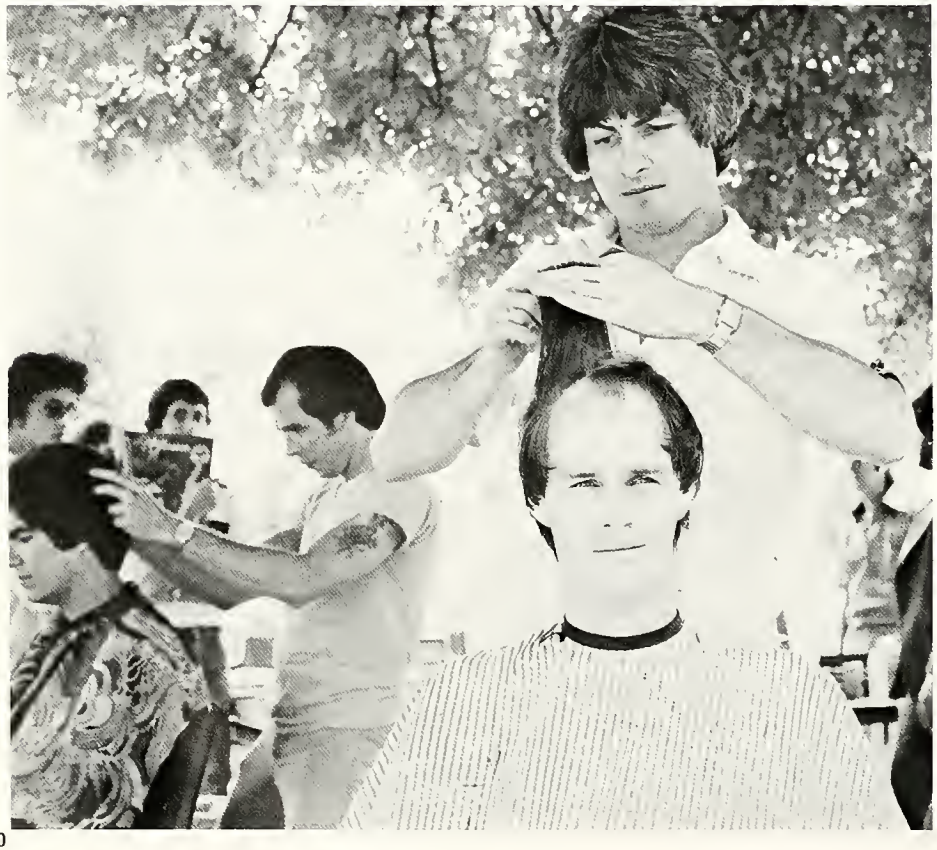
TO WILLIAM CORTNER IV:
"I seem to be in a kind of happy state of mind. Nothing really seems to bother me. I seem to just float along." 9-28-76.

TO WILBERT GUILFORD, JR:
Good luck. Best wishes, we are proud of you. God bless and keep you safe. Love Mom and Dad Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Sr.

TO ANDREA HAYDEL:
You have reached half of a mile stone to success and we are proud of this achievement. Love Mother and Daddy.

TO EUGENIE DELLSPERGER:
Genie, Brown eyes follow your star. Each new days a kiss sent from up above with an angels love. How we love you Mom Dad.

TO DORCAS STODDARD:
Our Heartiest best wishes to the class of '78 — especially to you dearest Dorcas. Love always Mom, Dad, Steph.



TO GESINA MEYNIER
To 1978 Beta Sigma Phi's sweetheart
Love and kisses
Dad, Mom, and "J".

TO DOUGLAS MICHEL SCHMIDT:
We are proud of you.
First an accountant then a CPA now a lawyer.
What next? Love Mama and Daddy.

TO RHONDA FERRARA:
To Ron: Climb high Climb far
Your aim the Sky
Your goal the star. Love Mom.

TO ROBERT GUSTINE:
Congratulations Bob!
We knew you could do it
All you need now is an extended vacation.
Love, Mom and Dad.

You're beautiful!

A complete photographic service

Nothing worth doing is ever done without great sacrifice every dream in its unfolding has difficult times when those who were committed to it have lost the vision.

Anon.

Those words have been the very backbone of the 1978 yearbook. The 1978 Wolf was definitely worth doing. Yearbooks are momentoes of years that have passed and events that have taken place. Each person only remembers specific things about each year and a yearbook recalls other incidents that were not previously remembered.

The yearbooks are still an infant production, here at Loyola, and that in itself causes unforseen difficulties. The students are not very sure how the yearbook will turn out so they are reluctant to buy it or support it. Because of this we have a small staff that is ALMOST unable to meet all of the demands of the yearbook. If all students would help out, just a little, we could put out an even better book which would encourage more people to buy it.

Although the year has been difficult, once again, with the help of a small but very hardworking staff the yearbook is here again. We all hope you like it.

Good luck in the coming years,

Nancy Heck
